Church, chapel and village news

Number 80 Winter 2012

This issue was funded with donations from the Coffee Club and from Mrs R Brierly and Mrs C Williams in memory of Mrs D Jarvis.
The cover picture was drawn by Arthur Owen-Jones.

The heart of the matter

It was often said that church and chapel were the heart of the village, and although attendances have dwindled it is still true that in matters of the heart –weddings and funerals – we still look to them.

There are those of course who might claim that the pub is the heart of the village. But however you look at it we have suffered something of a cardiac arrest.

St Silin's finds itself without a vicar, again, after the sad departure of the Reverend Tony Dilworth. Since the whole future of the Church in Wales is in the melting pot it may be optimistic to hope for a quick replacement but in the meantime our lay reader Lee Northcott Hammond and retired clergy, notably Tony Sadler, are doing sterling work.

An even greater loss was suffered by the Chapel with the passing away of Parch Stanton Evans. A much-loved man who made a huge contribution to the community, he leaves a space that will be hard to fill. A full tribute to him is paid on the next page.

On a happier note, the pub has found a new team. Sisters Jeanne and Dolly Kulig, from the village, have taken over and transformed the place. It's warm, welcoming and well-worth a visit. They have an active social programme planned so keep an eye open for notices. If we want to keep our pub we must use it.

The same is true of our places of worship. At Christmas many who seldom use the church or chapel make one of their rare visits; it lifts our hearts, and we take it for granted that church and chapel will always be there. But this is an illusion. Without the support of the village there will be no Christmas, Easter or remembrance services, no place to celebrate our weddings, no place to say farewell to those we love, no churchyard for their rest.

You do not need to be a regular attender to support the church – though you will always find a friendly welcome – and in 2013 a new initiative will be launched to help ensure the future of this beautiful building and it's role at the heart of the community. More of that next year.

Meanwhile, the Newsletter is trying hard to keep its finger on the pulse. If you are involved with any village organisation and would like to mention its activities, need help or would like to drum up support contact the editor.

Y Parch Stanton Evans

Gyda thristwch mawr bu i'r gymdogaeth glywed am farwolaeth Y Parch Stanton Evans. Daeth yn weinidog ar eglwysi yr ofalaeth yma yn 1991. Ar y pryd roedd y syniad o Weinidogaeth Bro yn newydd iawn yng Nghymru, ond fe lwyddodd Y Parch Stanton Evans i'n clymu yn ddeheuig iawn ac mae llawer i eglwysi led-led Cymru wedi dilyn ein hesiampl.

Bu'n weinidog a bugail penigamp, yn ymweld a'r cleifion yn gyson, yn paratoi cyfarfodydd i'r aelodau ac yn benaf oll , cael yr ieuenctid i arwain gwasanaethau. Uchafbwynt bob blwyddyn oedd Y Bererindod flynyddol. Ein pererindod cyntaf oedd i Soar Y Mynydd. Fe'i threfnwyd mor dda fel bu raid cael un bob blwyddyn hyd y llynedd gan orffen bob tro gyda phryd o fwyd ac roedd Y Parch Stanton Evans yn gwybod am y llefydd bwyta gorau drwy Ogledd Cymru.

Mawr yw ein dyled iddo. Er ei fod wedi ymddeol bu'n dryw iawn i ni hyd y diwedd ac nid anghofiwn ei ffordd ddiymhongar o weinyddu'r cymun. Mae ein cydymdeimlad a Iola a'r teulu yn gywir iawn.

The Reverend Stanton Evans.

It was with great sadness that the community heard about the passing of the Reverend Stanton Evans. He became our inter-denominational minister in 1991. At the time the concept of such a ministry was new in Wales, but the Reverend Stanton Evans managed very successfully to unite us all together and now many chapels throughout Wales have followed our example.

He was an excellent minister and shepherd. He visited the sick regularly, he organised the members to take services and he was able to get the youngsters together to lead certain services during the year. The highlight of every year was the Annual Pilgrimage. The first one was to Soar Y Mynydd, a lonely chapel high above Tregaron. It was arranged so well that we had one every year up to last year. Each pilgrimage ended with a meal and Stanton knew where all the best eating places were in North Wales.

We owe him a great deal, although he had retired, he was faithful to the end. We shall never forget his unostentatious way of conducting the communion service. We send our sincere condolences to Iola and the family.

Change at the top and new starters

We began this autumn term with a new acting head, Mrs Rhian Jones. Rhian has been a teacher with us for a few years and has taken over from Brenda Davies, while local girl (and former pupil) Lucy Jones-Thomas has joined our team as foundation phase teacher. We have also welcomed four new pupils: Ben Jones, Marty Jones, Rebecca Doody and Chloe Furnival.

The children have had a busy start to the academic year with years 4/5/6 taking part in a tag-rugby tournament and swimming gala.

The older children have been working with artists to create a number of fantastic willow-framed puppets to take part in an Arts Connection project and have performed their puppet story in Llanfyllin High School with some other local schools. The puppets are now on display in the school library area.

Owain Glyndwr recreated as a puppet by the older children.

Our Harvest Festival this year was in aid of "Bake a Difference" -a Concern Worldwide project, and made £180 from collection and cake sales, many thanks to all villagers who supported us in this project.

We have two treats to look forward to. Before we break for Christmas-we will be travelling to Llanfyllin to see the High school pupils performance of The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe on 13 December and then to Theatre Severn for the pantomime on 18 December.

School dates for the diary:

We will be carol singing around the village on 12 December. Our Christmas Fayre will be in the memorial Hall on 14 December and we will be holding our carol service in St Silin's on 20 December at 6pm, hope you can join us.

"Nadolig Llawen a Blwyddyn newydd Dda i chi gyd - Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to you all" from all at Ysgol Bro Cynllaith.

Classics cars come to Llansilin

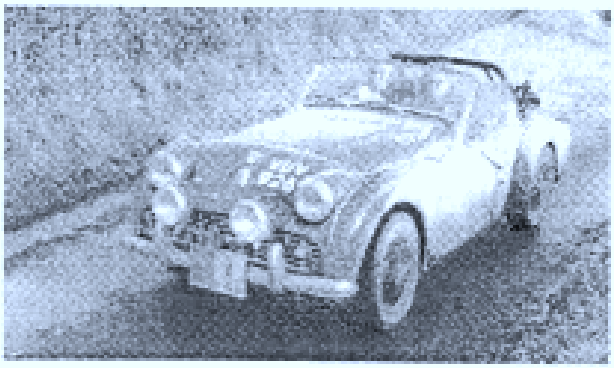

We're used to meeting boy racers on the Lanes, but old boy racers? That's something different – and spectacular.

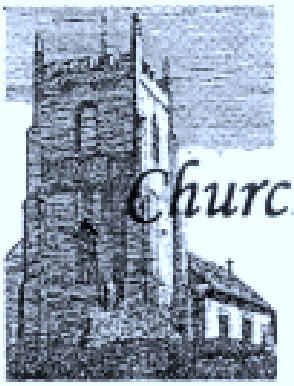

In November the Rally of the Tests from Torquay to Chester came through the village - a muddy, roaring cavalcade of motoring memories from Aston Martin to Morris Minor. All the cars were pre-1970 and many had seen the glory days of rallying, like the Mini-Cooper, MGB and Saab 'Clockwork Mouse.'

Appropriately the event took place on Remembrance Sunday – and well after the service.

Church news

Christmas is coming at St Silin's

Success of Jubilee display

The Jubilee displays with a variety of photographs, summer drinks, sweets, puddings, light refreshments and raffles was a great success. A variety of interesting local videos were shown these were much enjoyed by everyone who visited the church.

A very sincere thank you to all who participated in so many different ways, too many to thank individually but you know who you are. Over £320 was raised towards the running costs of the church.

Crowning the season

But the summer is long past and we now look forward to winter events, and Christmas in particular. The Crown of Light on the church tower will shine out over the village again from Advent to the New Year. – it is now a much-loved feature of our Christmas time and is such a pleasure to see. The income from the "sale" of light bulbs will help support our local hospices.

For £3 you can contribute to the cost of the bulbs and electricity – maybe to remember someone special or a special event. Every penny, after expenses, will be donated to the Severn Hospice and the Hope House Hospice. To "buy" a bulb contact: Margaret Lloyd, Joan Williams 656782 or Esther Milner 791 647

A plug for the plygain

The traditional Welsh Plygain will be on Friday 7 December at 7.30 p.m. We love having new "singing parties" to help make a memorbale evening. By invitation, the Reverend Kit Carter will lead the service and also participate as a solo party.

Now firmly established in local calendars, the Llansilin Plygain is notable in the area. The stirring un-accompanied rendering of the Supper Song will, as usual, be sung by the men before the renowned refreshments are served in the Parish Room and everyone adjourns for a chat in Welsh, or in English.

Putting the churchyard to bed

After such a difficult wet season the grass cutters recently spent a Saturday morning doing a final tidy-up before the winter. This was followed by a well-deserved lunch and glass of wine in the Parish Room. How grateful we are to such super volunteers!

Our responsibilities for the care and repair of such an ancient site are never-ending! Currently we are having to undertake the repair to two sections of the churchyard wall which are unstable.

A bright note

A dull summer has been made much brighter by the flowers around the village . The planters by the fountain have been a striking feature despite the wet season. Thank you to volunteers for such committed care, and also to the kind donor for the bulbs already planted ready for next spring.

There has also been a fine show of flowers in the new planters each side of the church door. New spring bulbs will be following to give a welcome to our many church visitors. Again, thanks to those who look after the tubs.

Looking for an inexpensive present?

There's a great range of inexpensive gifts in St Silin's all unique to Llansilin. It includes packs of greetings cards, tea towels, bookmarks and new illustrated history and guide to the church in full colour.

Local girls take on the Wynnstay

Jeanne and Dolly Kulig have taken over at the Wynnstay Inn. After a thorough clean-up when former licensees John and Simon and many locals led by Dolly's partner Wayne, came to help the pub was packed for its re-opening on November 15.

A warm welcome at the Wynnstay from Wayne, Dolly and Jeanne

The brewery intends to sell the pub so the sisters' plans can only be short term but they hope to start serving simple meals in the New Year. Meanwhile there are plenty of fund-raising and social events for the village being planned, so keep an eye on the pub's noticeboard.

Have you got talent?

As the jubilee celebrations when so well a few of us thought we would get together and organise a fun day next year on Saturday 25 May, writes Jeanne Kulig. We have already started fund raising with things like quizzes and bingo and we are now in the process of organising a Llansilin's Got Talent evening.

This will be taking place on 9 March 2013 at the village hall. Application forms and tickets will be available soon from the Community Shop and the Wynnstay Inn.

Please contact Jeanne or Loraine Kulig,, Kim Ashford, Jenny Richards or Margaret Jones (Waterworks) for more information. We will also be on the lookout for volunteers and any help will be gratefully received and accepted.

It's time to get your performing heads on.

Play bingo for the shop

A bingo fund-raising session for the community shop is being held in the Wynnstay Inn. It's on Saturday 8 December and starts at 7.00pm.

The caller is Dennis Socket, so it should be an entertaining evening and everybody is welcome.

A crafty plea for cotton

In between other projects the Craft Group members are currently working on a patchwork quilt. They would be extremely grateful for any oddments of cotton fabric that people can offer them. If you are able to help please contact Alison Beeston (791 262) or Joan Fox-Linton (791 260)

Nellie will light up your life

Will lovely Nellie escape the clutches of the grasping moneylender? Or the grasping hands of her lecherous employer?
PALS next production is an Edwardian comedy that sees an innocent girl's dreams of glory shattered by the arrival of electricity and a drunken father. Can Nellie's Nightlights possibly have a happy ending?

Get down to the Memorial Hall on 22 or 23 February and find out.

And if you'd like to help as a stage-hand, front-of-house, or taking part in a future production contact Alison Beeston on 791 262.

County bell ringers come to Llansilin

Bell ringers from across the county converged on Llansilin to exercise their skills on our bells and enjoy a special bell ringers' service.

The Montgomeryshire Branch of the North Wales Association of Church Bell Ringers gathered at St Silin's Church for their quarterly meeting. This was an opportunity for members to join with others of varied abilities to hone their skills on the six bells, which vary in weight from two hundredweight to nearly six hundredweight.

This was followed by a special service in the church, conducted by former vicar, the Reverend Kit Carter. It included St Silin's favourite ringing hymn, written by former tower captain, the late Eric Avery.

A bring-and-share tea followed in the parish room before the business meeting, conducted by ringing master, Roy Turner of Guilsfield. Plans were made for subsequent ringing meetings around the county.

A ringing success for Christine

It is the ambition of all church bell ringers to ring a Peal - three hours of ringing non-stop without repeating any of the "rows" or patterns of ringing. A major stepping stone to this goal is to ring a Quarter Peal taking 45 minutes of concentration and stamina. We believe that a quarter peal has only been rung once before on Llansilin's bells, by a visiting band some years ago.

On 24 October, Christine Williams, tower captain at St Silin's, joined with five other ringers from Montgomeryshire to ring her first quarter on our bells, and the first quarter on the bells to include a member of the resident band. In addition, this performance was rung to celebrate Her Majesty's diamond jubilee year. So hearty congratulations to Christine for this excellent achievement.

Gweinidogaeth Bro

Dyma dymor y Cyfarfodydd Diolchgarwch. Cawsom dri gwasanaeth, y cyntaf oedd pregeth gan Y Parch William Davies, Y Bala, yr ail oedd pregeth ddwyieithog gan Y Parch Raymond Hughes yng Nghapel Cefn Canol ac yna gwasanaeth dan ofal yr ieuenctid. Oedfa oedd hon wedi cael ei threfnu gan Y Parch Stanton Evans cyn iddo ymadael a ni. Fe aeth casgliad y tri gwasanaeth tuag at Ambiwlans Awyr Cymru. Cyfarfodydd bendithiol iawn.

Mae cyfarfodydd y Gymdeithas Ddiwylliadol wedi dechrau. Y noson gyntaf oedd sgwrs hwyliog am "Y Porthmyn" gan Idris Evans o Langollen. Yr ail gyfarfod oedd ap Rhys Owen yn siarad am y modd y tynodd ei dŷ yn ddarnau ac Risiart yna ei ail godi.Tipyn o gamp.

Ydych chi wedi gwneud eich cacen Nadolig eto? Mi fydd Gwŷl y Geni yma cyn bo hir. Wrth i mi ysgrifennu hwn mae haenen o eira cyntaf y tymor ar Y Gyrn.

This is the Season for Thanksgiving. We held three services. The first was a preaching service conducted by the Reverend William Davies, Y Bala. The second service was bilingual at Cefn Canol and the visiting preacher was the Reverend Raymond Hughes. The third service was led by the youths and it was prepared by the Reverend Stanton Evans before he passed away. The collection from these services went to the Air Ambulance Fund.

The Literary Society started the season with a humorous talk about the Drovers of North Wales by Idris Evans of Llangollen The second talk was given by Risiart ap Rhys Owen on how he had bought a house, then pulled it to bits and built it up again. Quite a feat.

Have you made your Christmas cake yet? Don't tarry too long as the celebration of the birth of Christ will soon be here. As I write this there is a slight covering of snow on the Gyrn.

Emyr Evans

A quiet summer for the Community Council

I apologise that this is a short article as the summer months were quiet and the councillors did not receive much correspondence from Powys County Council or other organisations to discuss.

At the last meeting in September it was agreed to close the public conveniences from 1 November until 10 March 2013. Once again this was to prevent any damage to water pipes when the colder weather is upon us and to keep costs to a minimum.

As this newsletter is circulated we shall have started our new kerbside recycling and waste collection arrangements from Powys County Council. This will only be introduced into the centre of Llansilin village from 22 October; I am unsure when or how far out the project will reach over time.

Councillors discussed certain states of roads surrounding the area with drainage problems when heavy rainfall occurs, damaged speeding signs and pot holes becoming a problem. Cllr Aled Davies agreed to follow these up with the relevant department as the winter months are approaching.

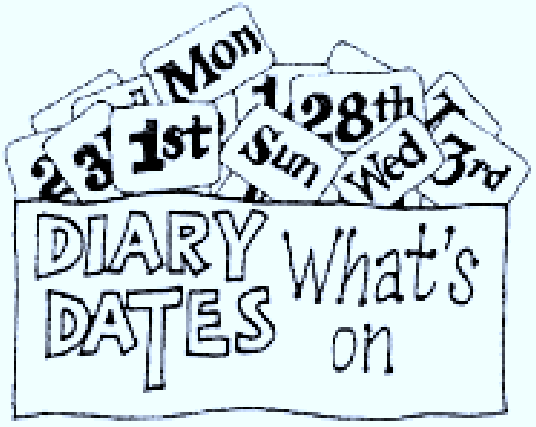

Laura Quance. Clerk.
